NO SALES TAX; NO PENSIONS IS REPORT

We are informed a movement has been started in the state, to repeal the sales tax law by referendum. We are informed a number of Xenians have enlisted in the cause which is to be started soon. Petitions will be carried from door to door seeking signatures. The movement is backed by prominent state Democratic politicians interested in the race for governor.

With the repeal of the sales tax the schools in city and rural districts will suffer a heavy loss of revenue that will mean new taxes in some other form. The Herald will publish the names of solicitors for the movement in this county at the proper time.

Repeal of the sales tax means no funds for old age pensions and for other relief work. We are informed the loss to this county in revenue will amount to $30,000. Much of the village revenue comes from the sales tax. Property owners would be given higher real estate taxes if the sales tax should be abolished.

If you are asked to sign such a petition, better keep in mind it is your own children in school that is getting the benefit of the sales tax.

Milk Producers Face Serious Feed Problem

Farmers who have heavy investment in dairy stock and equipment are not only concerned but worried over two things, one the effect of the drought on the feed situation and the second the present price of supply feeds in the face of government fixed price on milk. Dairy interests have appealed to the OPA, Cleveland, for an increase from $3.45 to $3.60 a hundredweight. The OPA is holding up any decision and meantime farmers must take the loss. Many are now feeding next winter's feed which means a greater shortage in milk next winter.

When the farmer learns to adopt organized labor methods by feeding the milk to the pigs for a week or ten days, they may get some relief after the public becomes aroused. One well known farmer stated Tuesday that his milk supply was off due to the dry pasture and cutting down on his supplemental feed to offset the increased cost of feed. He had two fresh cows but was not sending that milk to market and did not propose to until there was an increase in milk prices.

Protect Buildings During Dry Spell

A large barn on the Fairfield and Xenia pike burned early Tuesday that belonged to the South Western Cement Co., Osborn. The building was used to store various kinds of material and machinery which was a total loss. No reason has been assigned as to the origin of the fire.

With the continued dry weather all farmers, including tenants, should use extra care about fire. It has been suggested that farm families should not all leave home at the same time during the drought. Each day from one to a half dozen farm fires are reported in the daily press in this section of Ohio. The farm loss has been much heavier than the loss in cities.

Many farmers have taken precaution to protect fields along the highways by plowing three or four four-ways to check roadside fires. Hundreds of fields have been burned due to lighted cigarettes being cast from automobiles into the dry grass along the highways and this leads to grass burning in the fields.

Keep a few buckets of water about your barn, garage and other buildings in case fire should break out. Clean rubbish with rags or oil from around the home or other buildings as they are combustible especially during the excessive heat.

War I Veteran Kicked From New Deal Job

World War veteran, Dr. William F. Edmunds, Cleveland, refused to play Democratic politics in his job has been kicked out of his office after refusing to resign. He was commanding officer in the First World War, Co. F, 330 Infantry, in which many boys from this county served.

Dr. Edmunds was man power director in Cleveland. He refused to resign and was "kicked out." He refused to play Democratic politics in his work, and that constituted a charge of not following dictatorial orders. Although a Democrat Dr. Edmunds never permitted politics in directing the war in his day. He demanded the common sense be used in hiring labor, a thing not known in the New Deal makeup.

18 Mexicans Return To Native Country

Eighteen of the original 40 Mexicans brought here last January as laborers on the Pennsylvania track line, have returned to their native country, their contract being for six months under the immigration laws. Ten of the remaining number that were transferred to Xenia, have been returned here. They did not like the county seat where they were refused recognition in some places.

The crew here now numbers 22 and is being used to lay new steel for the railroad company. Several of the crew have been taking English lessons to have a better knowledge of our language.

The different railroads have imported several thousand laborers from around Mexico City and most of them remit a large part of their wages to their families at home. One dollar of our money is worth two of Mexico. The B. & O. railroad has about 600 laborers from Mexico stationed at Grove City.

The Cedarville committee headed by Raymond Cherry and Elbert Andrews arranged the program.

JAMAICANS LABOR FOR ODD FARM JOBS

The majority of the Jamaican workers stationed at the Farm Labor Camp at Bryan Park, who have been detasseling hybrid corn the past three weeks will complete this work by August 1, according to Elmer Smith, Farm Labor assistant.

With the completion of corn detasseling these men will be available for other work and farmers are urged to use them in clearing up some of the old jobs around the farm, such as cleaning out ditches and trimming hedges. The next peak load for farm labor will come with corn harvest, however, we must keep these men busy until that time. For information call the county agent's office or the Farm Labor camp, Yellow Springs 449.

30 TONS WATER PER BUSHEL

It takes a lot of water to make a corn crop and the yield per acre is determined by the amount of water available to the corn plants. Experiments show that 20 tons of water is required to produce one bushel of corn. A hundred bushel per acre crop requires 2000 tons of water per acre. It has been found that the amount of soil water is taken up by the corn roots and transplanted through the blades.

One inch of rainfall is equivalent to 173 tons of water per acre and usually about one third of this is lost through runoff. Since there is not enough rainfall during the growing season of corn to produce a large yield, even with a normal rainfall, it is important to hold over as much of the winter and spring rainfall in the soil as possible.

SHORT PASTURES BOTHER DAIRYMEN

Barred out pastures and the necessity of feeding hay and grain to dairy cows are causing dairymen to consider market conditions and the size of their herd. Latest reports on milk and feed prices are discouraging to dairymen. In June this year the dairymen could buy only 123 pounds of dairy feed with the cash from 100 pounds of milk as compared with 142 pounds of feed a year ago. Present prospects indicate rising feed prices through the rest of 1944.

GOOD WHEAT SUPPLY ON HAND

The wheat carryover on July 1, was almost 300 million bushels and the 1944 crop is expected to add a billion bushels more. Only one previous crop has passed the billion bushel mark.

In comparing the wheat situation of today with World War I, we find that on July 1, 1918, the wheat carryover was 40 million bushels and the nation had been observing wheatless days for months preceding that date.

LIKED THE LUCE SPEECH

The Rev. F. M. Foster, Wood-Ridge, M. J., writes that he heard Mrs. Clara Luce's speech at the Republican National Convention in Chicago by radio and thought it was wonderful. Commenting on the Herald review in our last issue he says, "your review adds to the number of our sixteen Irishmen."

Gov. Bricker Asked To Help Break Clinton Draft Board Squabble

The SOS has been sent out from Columbus Selective Headquarters in the Clinton County draft board squabble. Following the resignation of the original board after a disagreement with State Headquarters, a second and a third attempt has been made to get residents to serve.

Clinton counties contend there is Democratic politics involved in the case and for that reason residents of that county, irrespective of party, are refusing to serve. Public sentiment is such that the appointing board cannot interest citizens to take the places. Meantime there have been no quotas filled and of late state headquarters has not asked for any.

Col. C. W. Goble has appealed to Gov. John W. Bricker to aid in securing a draft board. Here is a wonderful opportunity for the White House to act.

A resident of this county near the Clinton county line made the prediction in our hearing a week ago that Clinton county would give Dewey and Bricker the largest vote ever recorded for a Republican candidate in that county. When asked about his section of Greene county this farmer was very optimistic and predicted two things, the Republican ticket would get seventy-five per cent of the women vote and more than fifty per cent of the male Democratic vote.

Damage Payments Allowed By Court

Three damage suits as a result of highway accidents, have been ordered settled by Probate Judge W. B. McCallister Jr.

Mrs. Alice Pemberton, as guardian of George H. Pemberton, Cedarville, who was injured in an auto crash Aug. 16, 1942, on Route 42, between Xenia and Cedarville, in which four youths were killed, has been authorized by the Court to be settled for $10,000, as a claim against Oliver Gress, administrator of the estate of James Gress, one of the youths fatally hurt. Gene Andrews of this place was one of the victims in the same accident.

William M. Shanks, as administrator of the estate of Floyd R. Shanks, who was killed in an auto-truck crash March 16 at the Jasper ave. crossing, Xenia, was directed to accept a $300 payment from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. As a guardian of Russell J. Shanks, 19, injured in the same accident, he was given permission to accept $200 from the railroad.

Greene Co. Fair To Open Tuesday For Four Days and Nights

Even a horse should be proud to possess the many friends that Ray has. And such enthusiastic, yet generous admirers at that. Several of these "interested friends" have planned a delightful occasion, both for Ray Henley and for those who attend the Greene County Fair, next week.

The fair management has arranged for Ray Henley to leave his browsing (and some saddle work) on a farm near Mt. Holly, that he may parade the horses, for the first heat of every race each day of the Fair!

Another good touch to this happy happening will be that Joe Hagler, owner, trainer and "personal friend" of Ray Henley, will pick up the lines and say the certain nothings into allert, brown ears, that will make this beloved horse lift his head and heels with eagerness to show the fans in the grandstand that he is glad to be home again.

For several years meals have been served by different church organizations at the Fair. This year the ladies of Sugar Creek Congregational Christian Church, will offer meals in cafeteria style. The usual commercial lunch stands on the fairgrounds will be ready for you each day of the fair.

Swaney, Cedarville, is a truck driver with a company of armed infantry, part of the 1st Armored Division, which has been a mainstay in the spearhead of Fifth Army's push into northern Italy. Machine gunners of the outfit are credited with annihilating a counter attacking German battalion in their drive on Rome. Cpl. Swaney has had 19 months combat service. Many of those in this unit fought in the Mediterranean Theatre and were among the first troops to attack the Germans in North Africa fighting across the desert to Tunis.

Raymond B. Howard Given Press Post

RAYMOND B. HOWARD

Raymond B. Howard, London publisher, has been named to head the press division of the Republican National Campaign Committee, that will be assigned to Gov. John W. Bricker, candidate for vice president. He will have his headquarters in New York City. In as much as Gov. Bricker is to carry much of the speaking campaign in some 26 states, it will be Mr. Howard's duty to keep the public informed as to the progress of the campaign. Mr. Howard has a national reputation in handling campaign publicity. He is a past president of the National Editorial Association, a director and President of the Ohio Newspaper Association and probably is known to more newspaper people, metropolitan and weekly, than any other publisher in the United States. He is the Seventh District Congressional Committeeman, of which Greene county is a part.

COUNTY AGENT E. A. DRAKE PLACES CROP LOSS AT 25 MILLION IN MIAMI VALLEY

County Agent E. A. Drake in summarizing the crop loss to farmers in the Miami Valley area places the loss at 25 million dollars, due to drought. Drake states that half of the corn crop in Greene county would be a loss. Most corn is tasseling when two feet or more short of what it should be at this season of the year. Drake says the normal corn crop, based on early reports of acreage planted, should be at least 3,750,000 bushels but that at present his estimate is half that.

Soy beans have also suffered and in sections where there were late plantings the seed has not yet sprouted. The 1944 clover crop might be considered a total loss except in a few isolated spots. Pastures are burned out and many farmers are forced to haul water for live stock.

Western states have had rain this week but the weather bureau does not promise much but scattered local showers in this vicinity.

BARLEY PRICES CUT BY OPA

Farmers that have not sold their barley crop and intend to do so will find the OPA has reduced the price 3c a bushel over the base price set last fall at seeding time. It is said the price had to be lowered to get under the "famous 1914 parity" that was to make farmers rich.

THE HENNEGAN-SHENANEGAN SHOW

The best thing to come out of the Hennegan-Shenanegan New Deal, Communist, Roosevelt CIO-Democratic convention, as the defeat of Henry A. Wallace, the vice presidential nomination. It was best for the nation, of course the best for him. As to the convention and whatever name you wish to apply to it, it was a direct rebuke to the CIO and the Communists that are backing Franklin D. Roosevelt. The latter never supports anyone for president unless they believe in and have promised support to the cause of Stalin whether in Russia or the U. S. A.

Henry A. Wallace was treated shamefully by his own supposed sponsors, probably something he earned for his attitude on the proposed world state organized as is Russia today, which could not meet American ideals of government; and his connection with the CIO and other Communist organizations and yet pose as one deeply interested in American agriculture. His defeat was not altogether of his own making yet he was stabbed in the back by Franklin D. Roosevelt, who followed the Hennegan-Shenanegan machine crowd that had told the White House Chief, that Wallace would cost the Democratic ticket three million votes if nominated.

Using the war planning as a guise out in California, FDR, in his roll as double-crosser checked all convention plans with Hennegan, which was the slaughter of the outstanding New Dealer that had more than once been the buffer between the White House and the public. In plain terms Roosevelt was a traitor to Henry Wallace and who dares deny it?

PATRIOTIC DUTY TO GET OUT SOLDIER VOTE

Under present conditions and following the exposure of the New Deal crooked soldier ballot it is the duty of parents and even relatives with sons in the service, that they urge soldiers to apply for ballots to have a part in the election this fall. It will probably be the election when more mothers will cast ballots in a presidential year than was ever known. The issue in the home is plain. The heavy hearts in several million homes will through the election avenger the deceit of the New Dealers. It cannot be denied, the blood of "G. I. Jim" was not spilled by any act of a Republican President.

The high-handed manner in which the Democratic-New Deal-Communist-CIO convention was run, and the traitorship and deceit used there should be a warning to parents of boys in the service that have not yet fallen in the roll of "G. I. Jim" as to what their future is to be, at home or abroad.

The youth in uniform now on foreign soil has no assurance under the New Deal that he will ever see his loved ones and his friends again. Neither can the parents have much hope under the present administration. Churchill stated a few days ago, after reviewing events in Germany: "the war may be over sooner than we have a right to expect." The White House will not comment on the Churchill statement. There can be no end to the war with a presidential campaign just forming. That is the reason we implore parents to write their sons to apply for ballots and cast their votes for all offices from president down to the least office of importance, county and state. The federal or New Deal short ballot would not permit a vote for governor nor county candidates. Roosevelt only wanted the soldier to vote for him but the various states would not approve of the Roosevelt back-door method of voting or making possible the marking the ballots behind a Washington door or in the hole of some government vessel where thousands would be scratched without violation of any law. It would be the Mussolini plan of electing one's self.

Just because a boy is in uniform does not mean his citizenship has been taken from him. He should have a right to vote the same ballot that will be handed his father and mother.

Roosevelt, the New Deal, and CIO would disfranchise all the boys in service in voting for governor and local candidates. That is the same selfish idea that prevailed in the last Chicago convention. Roosevelt decorated Henry Wallace (my friend) with the double cross and the nation knows it today, whatever you think of Wallace. Sen. Alvin Barkley suffered late fate because he once took issue with the Hyde Park Squire on vetoing a tax bill. It was revenge for (Dear Alvin). No such charge was ever placed at the door of any Republican president. Keep your son posted on the campaign. He has a right to know. The New Deal censor may burn the letter but keep writing the boy anyhow.

THE GREAT DECEIVER

Mr. Roosevelt, accepting the draft that his palace guard has so carefully nurtured, the draft that his leaders in the convention did not seek to have made unanimous because they dared not, sought to wrap about his shoulders the mantle of Lincoln.

He chose the wrong quotation. The words that fit him are not the magnificent wisdom and charity of the second inaugural. They can't fool all of the people all of the time.

"You can't fool all of the people all of the time."

To a nonexistent person who had been completely cloistered from the world for the last 12 years the acceptance speech would have been tremendously impressive. It was written to deceive, and it was delivered by the greatest master of political deception this nation has ever known. But it could not deceive the American people who have suffered thru those 12 years of the New Deal.

They heard a man pledge that he will "build an economy for our returning veterans and for all Americans which will provide employment and decent standards of living." This from the man who, in peace time, was never able to provide useful employment for 8 to 10 million workers. What is his post-war employment plan—another war, or the husks and political slavery of another WPA? Those have been his only remedies for 12 years.

They heard a man plead against turning the peace over to "inexperienced and immature hands." This from the man who is the favored candidate for President of the United States of Churchill and the British press, of Stalin and the Communist press. Do they think Churchill and Stalin want Roosevelt re-elected because he would persuade them to concede the most to the United States at the peace table?

The Roosevelt leaders did not dare ask the convention to make the nomination unanimous because there were still a few Democrats seated in it. Those Democrats had to come to Chicago to see how completely their party has been torn from their control. They saw Sidney Hillman, his political power inflated by a slush fund checked off the pay of workers by Communist-run unions, vetoing candidates for Vice President. They saw the Kellys, and the Hagues, and the Flynns, and the Crumps, whose interest is in spoils and not principles, manipulating their delegates to carry out the mandates from the Presidential train, without which the convention managers could not turn around.

But they did not see the Democratic party in action, because the Democratic party is dead.

Everybody knows that Roosevelt is the Communist candidate, but even the Communists cannot be sure where their place will be if he wins. His purpose is to overthrow the Republic for his own selfish ambitions and those who serve the purposes of that ambition know from example furnished this week that they may expect to be discarded whenever their usefulness in attaining that objective ends.

In spite of the millions of New Deal pay-rollers, in spite of the attempt to poison the minds of the soldiers and sailors overseas, to regiment their voting and furnish them fraudulent ballots, this will still be a free election. We have not yet lost our power of self-preservation. It is the holy duty of every American to oppose the Great Deceiver.

Poor Henry! Henry the V. P. was left waiting at a Chicago depot last Saturday without a New Dealer or even a CIO to see him off for his Iowa home. The sacrifice on the political altar that FDR could join with the corrupt city Democratic bosses to nominate one of their own choosing, Truman, for V. P., a product of the Missouri Pendergrast political machine that stole Kansas City and the state blind. A number have served and are serving time yet in prison.

Evidently the old saying that "no body cares for a loser" applied to the one time Roosevelt idol, (my personal friend) says the great deceiver in the White House. When Henry reached the depot there was not even a Chicago ward heeler to see him off. His wife and sister had taken their apartment on the Pullman some time before Henry's arrival. As the V. P. walked to the Pullman car with his load of baggage, the Colored Porter, asked: "Is this you, Mr. Wallace?" A lone reporter covering the depot followed Wallace through the train shed and after stepping on the car asked him for an interview. Haggard, tired and with disappointment on his countenance and tremble in his voice, the Vice President, (first on the Roosevelt endorsed list for V. P. to be awarded the kiss of death) took his place with his family to nurse his bruises and wounds administered by those he had served as faithful as is expected of the water-boy on a railroad section crew. Wallace has never been anything else but a lucky-boy for the Roosevelt palace-guard of Communists that have the Hyde Park Squire wrapped around their finger.

With Hillman and the CIO raising five or seven million dollars to dump in the Roosevelt-Truman campaign, it is certain the old Democratic party is to be no more, for the present campaign. FDR could not turn down that much change. He did not turn down the $500,000 John L. Lewis and his miners put in a Democratic corruption fund a few years ago. John L. did his part in electing Roosevelt at that time but later they divided after the White House had all it could get.

Sidney Hillman with his CIO millions is now on the driver's seat and FDR will take orders from him. Just so with Hennegan, Hague, Kelly and the other big city Democratic bosses. "Money makes the mare go." The CIO and FDR are now buddies and will be as long as campaign funds and votes keep coming. If the CIO fails then it is the "Wallace kiss of death" for Hillman and his followers. A dictator cares no more about friendship or gratitude than he does for the spilled blood of the American soldier on the home or foreign front. Greed for both power and money and wealth was on Hitler's program. The same for Stalin and Mussolini.

Now that Hillman will feature the political news as much as FDR it is interesting to know something about him. He might be the next proxy president of the United States. He has seen mugwumps like Harry Hopkins, and a lot of college degree blood-suckers on the public payroll get fat, so why not connect with the U. S. Treasury and stop raising funds from labor union members?

Hillman knows that he has a dozen or more of his faithful followers now in the State, Treasury and Agricultural departments. With the AAA, FCA, and other alphabetical agencies now under Communist direction, it will be easy sailing when Sidney Hillman sits at the feet of the throne in the White House.

Hillman was born in 1887 but we are not able to give his Russian Jewish family name. His father was a merchant in a small town. At the age of 20 he graduated from a Jewish seminary in Zagare. He landed in America in 1907 in New York. He was a garment worker and he at once took up Socialism. He was a follower of Leon Trotsky, editor of a radical New York paper. Soon Hillman was a strike leader against large garment manufacturers. His union controls millions of garment workers and also millions in cash, enough to wreck the entire garment industry and put every citizen back in home-spun clothes.

When the Russian revolution broke out and the Communists took over all property, stores, banks and lands, it was Hillman who organized the Communists in this country to give aid to Moscow. Hillman worked his way into the Democratic party during the first campaign for Franklin D. Roosevelt. A trade was made to get the support of the Communists and other radical groups. Last week part of that debt was paid when Roosevelt directed Democratic leaders to keep in touch with Hillman. But the city bosses had another view. They held out for Wallace's defeat regardless of Hillman and his millions.

Hillman was an "isolationist" when the present World War broke out. He even opposed the New Deal and some of its policies. He fought many New Deal candidates election day but when Germany attacked Russia and set out for Moscow to get Stalin, then Hillman joined with Roosevelt to go the limit with men and money for his beloved native land. And Roosevelt fell under the Hillman spell. At that time other Communists like Browder, ex-convict, joined the New Deal movement and when loyalty became an issue the later was ordered with one or more Communists, deported. White House influence made that impossible until Hillman gave the "green light".

Stay at home and save gasoline! The issue as to how Mrs. Roosevelt reached Patterson Field has not been settled. She had been billed at a Yellow Springs confab. One Democrat paper says she arrived by plane. Later another story was she arrived by train. By this time and since the issue has been debated. With the war needs such as they are it makes no difference how Mrs. Roosevelt travels. She has wasted millions of gallons of government gasoline gallivanting all over the world. If she goes by rail she is taking up what the government calls: "that much needed seat for our service men".

Your as a citizen are asked every day to put off the vacation. You are urged to give up a trip to see your wife or mother in some distant state. All as a patriotic duty you are urged to stay where you are. But not so with the royal family. The Fifth Ave. and Hyde Park royalists who live by dictating to others, go when they please and where they please, war or no war. Any pretense is reason for travel in war time.

Some statistics: The Incarnation of Independence contains 1321 words and the Ten Commandments, 292 words. The creation of the world in 400 words, Gettysburg address, 268 words yet it required 2500 words to write an OPA regulation as to how to bake a fruit cake. The bakers could not understand the verbiage and asked for a statement of the OPA. Here is the reply: "Amendment seven to maximum price 319. All commodities listed in appendix A are those known to the trade as such excepting therefrom such thereof, if any, while subject to another regulation." "Now, anybody can bake a fruit cake after reading the New Deal simplified order."

Press reports say the Demo-CIO convention in Chicago beat all records for three days when they eat more hot dogs and drank more beer than the Republican convention. The Demo-CIO delegates made way with 90,000 bottles of beer, the greatest amount ever served any group in the stadium.

The Republicans had no packed convention this year as with Willie. The CIO packed the Stadium against Mayor Kelly and other city bosses to stage the famous Wallace sludge on the night before the voting. For that the bosses put their heads together and with the green light from FDR started the quick go-step that sent Wallace delegates into the Truman camp.

Followers of Roosevelt and the CIO that own and operate farms face a new situation. Sidney Hillman and his crew packed in the Ag Department. The CIO is running large ads in city papers appealing for labor support weeks of the year. The CIO is campaigning for an annual wage or salary guaranteed for each of the 62 weeks of the year. The CIO disapproves of free house rent, wood and milk as part of the farm labor pay. The basic farm labor price is placed at $1 an hour to provide "basic freedom of all". The argument is that industry is guaranteed a profit and the farmer a minimum return of 90 percent of parity price of the products he produces for two years following the end of the war, then all labor should have something to say and be given a guaranteed full year's wage whether you work a full year or not. That is what Wallace and the CIO hatched up through the AAA, a promise to future labor. The farmer would not be permitted to sell his crops only on government order, that he was meeting the full requirement of the annual wage scale. That was to be the campaign but where will it go now that Wallace is out of the picture?

We wonder what the reaction would be if the Republicans should decide to make such a campaign. What would the Farm followers of Roosevelt and Wallace have to say to questions on approving the new wage plan. Some of the AAA followers that have enjoyed handing out $8 checks for a full week's work, evidently would have a different attitude towards "our revolution" as Mrs. Roosevelt commented once on a Wallace speech. The labor organization quotes the famous AAA parity prices, such as were paid back in that period following a panic, now called a depression.

Lesson for July 30

LESSON TEXT—Judges 7:1-7, 13-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—There is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few.—1 Samuel 17:52.

Man power is said to be the secret of victory. Our nation is concerned about the shortage of man power in critical manufacturing centers. The armed forces are calling for more and more men and women. That will all make it a little strange to study and teach the lesson for today, for here is the story of a crucial military campaign in which the leader, Gideon, was told by God to cut down his forces. This happened again and again, until he had less than one per cent of his original force, which was none too large, humanly speaking. What singular thing was going on? God was at work and he did not want Israel to look to the arm of flesh, but to Him.

Three questions are raised and answered in this interesting story:
I. Quantity or Quality? (7:1-7).
The Lord is looking for men to do His work, but He cannot use men who are afraid or careless. This was the lesson Gideon learned, and it applies to our day as well.

When Gideon started out he had 32,000 men (Judg. 7:3). Not willing that they should glory in their own strength and knowing that many of them were cowards at heart, the Lord told Gideon to let those who were afraid, go home. When the mob had left there were only 10,000 left.

How sad it is that so many are "fearful and afraid" (v. 3) when it comes to going into battle for the Lord. They sing cheerily, "Stand up, stand up for Jesus, ye soldiers of the cross; let courage rise with danger," etc.; but when the bombs of Satan begin to fall, or the bugle calls for an advance into the enemy's territory, they have disappeared to places of comfort and safety. What good are such soldiers? The Lord told Gideon to send them home; perhaps the church should do the same.

Then came the second test which appears in our lesson. Those who took the comfortable and easy way to drink (v. 6), were not alert and ready. Down went the number to 300, but these were men who were ready to obey, who were alert and courageous.

The church needs to learn that large numbers are not the answer to her problems. God is interested in numbers, be sure of that, but He is more concerned about quality than quantity. Let us get more people who are truly regenerated into the church, and not just more people.

II. Man's Power or God's Power? (v. 15-17).
Strange as was the plan for recruiting, the plan of battle was even more unusual. Lights, broken pitchers, and trumpet blasts are hardly the accepted weapons of warfare, nor does the method sound like military strategy.

This was no time for questions, for logical arguments, for the usual organization of war, for now God was about to work. He was ready to show His power quite apart from the ability of man, and He had a right to work as He would.

Wise and blessed is the church which knows that there comes a time when the thing to do is to put plans aside and let the Lord work. No one will question the value of organization and proper church machinery, but we need to ask ourselves whether we have not become so organized that we impede the work of God.

Observe on the other hand that it was "the sword of the Lord and of Gideon"—not just the sword of the Lord, but the sword of Gideon. We must not hinder His glorious working. But He works through men, do not forget that! He used Gideon, and He used Gideon's little band.

God's power must accomplish God's work, but that power flows out to the world through yielded and obedient men.

III. Running or Standing? (v. 19-21).
The enemy "ran and cried and fled." The sword of the Lord and of Gideon had put them to rout. Well may the enemies of God be terrified when He begins to work through His servants.

All this was done "by faith," for we find Gideon's act of turning "to fight the armies of the aliens" listed among the exploits of faith (Heb. 11:34).

Now, see what Gideon's host was doing while the enemy ran (v. 21). "They stood every man in his place." No need for frantic hurry with them, no fear, no excitement. God works that way. Remember the children of Israel at the Red Sea? The water ahead, and Pharaoh's host to the rear. What for? "Fear ye not, stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." (Exod. 14:13).

Perhaps the word is coming to us just now—Trust God rather than the power of man! Stand still and see what He will do, for His own glory!

Miss Nancy Williamson Bride Of Ensign Pennypacker

One of the brilliant social events of the summer season was the marriage of Miss Nancy Louise Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Williamson, when she became the bride of Ensign Mottor C. Pennypacker, Jr., Toledo, in the First Presbyterian Church, Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The church was beautiful in decorations of gladioli, baby breath, ferns and palms and the altar was lighted by white tapers. Rev. Paul Elliott, pastor, read the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial selections was presented before the ceremony by Mrs. Roy V. Hilty, Bowling Green, who sang "Because," "Through The Years," "I Love Thee" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Rankin McMillan, organist, who played additional numbers and the wedding marches. During the service Mrs. Hilty sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Preceding Miss Williamson down the aisle were her bridesmaids, Misses Vera Mae Fields and Patricia Pennypacker, in gowns of pink; Misses Virginia Reber and Marie Beckman, in blue, and Miss Eloise Overholt and Rae Ankney, in yellow. They carried bouquets of pink gladioli tied with satin ribbon matching their gowns. Miss Frances Williamson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink tulle. Her flowers were pink roses. The flower girl, Jane McMillan, dressed in pale green net, carried a miniature bride's bouquet. Mr. Williamson gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long torso and long train. The sleeves fastened with tiny buttons to the elbows, formed points over her hands. A tiara of orange blossoms held in place her finger-tip length veil of illusion net. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses with an orchid center and her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, gifts of the bridegroom.

Dr. Mottor C. Pennypacker, Sr., performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Capt. Lawrence Williamson and Mr. Myron J. Williamson, brothers of the bride; Mr. John L. McMillan and Mr. Kenneth Benedict.

The reception followed at the home of the bride, Mrs. Williamson receiving guests in a gown of powder blue crepe and lace with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Pennypacker, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in larkspur blue crepe with fuchsia accessories and a corsage of white roses. The rooms were decorated with white gladioli and ferns. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, placed on a mirror and topped with a miniature bride.

Mrs. L. D. Williamson and Mrs. Milton J. Williamson, sisters-in-law of the bride, poured and Mrs. Howard Aldrich, cousin of the bride, assisted as hostess. Ensign and Mrs. Pennypacker cut the wedding cake with a sword.

For the wedding trip to Chicago the bride wore a beige gabardine suit white and green accessories and an orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Cedarville High School and attended Bowling Green University. Ensign Pennypacker, son of Dr. and Mrs. Pennypacker, Sr., 2125 Brookdale Rd., Toledo, also attended Bowling Green and is stationed as an instructor at Pensacola, Fla., in the naval air corps. The couple will reside in Pensacola on their return from the wedding trip.

Scarf Arrangements Add Zest to Mode

They're Worn Draped in Intriguing Ways.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The scarf comes in for a lot of attention this season. Designers are playing it up in every conceivable manner. If the home sewing woman is a resourceful she can do interesting things, too, in manipulating the gay colorful squares. One of the satisfactions in creating fashions of scarves is that you are rewarded with items that have an air of exclusiveness about them since they are not made of the regular prints and fabrics sold over the counter. Never are the gay little dirndl skirts made of two printed squares. You cut a border edge off of one side to use for a belt and for pockets. Place the pockets on the skirt if you wish but you will find them very effective used on the plain colored blouse worn with the gay scarf skirt. A plain border makes a very effective hemline.

Voguish indeed is the blouse made of two bright head scarves. You can find these scarves ready made. However, it is a hobby going the rounds among girls who can sew to run up a blouse of their own make.

A unique way to make a large printed lightweight scarf contribute a picturesque note to a simple slender-silhouetted navy or black dress is to tie it about the hips in graceful gypsy fashion in this wise: Fold the gay square across diagonally, thus forming a triangle. Position the point so as to fall below the right hip, bring the two ends to the left and tie them in a soft manner so as to give the skirt a long-torso line that is now so voguish.

You can also get oblong scarves so sheer they are wound about the head in turban fashion, or they are thrown gracefully about the shoulders.

A feature of some of the newest dresses is that they have scarf arrangements that are incorporated in the styling of the gown itself. A favorite method is a single long scarf end of self fabric sewed into a front yoke or the shoulder line so that it can be brought up and over to the back where it falls in graceful flowing lines, or can be adjusted around the neckline.

It is smart also to ensemble the dress with a separate shawl-like scarf made of self fabric. This is carried out especially in connection with sheer-mesh lace dresses notably the handsome black Chantilly type of sheerest cobweb mesh. The scarf is worn as a mantilla over the head or artfully as a graceful wrap. Dramatic are the black crepe frocks with cutout print motifs applied in gorgeous effects, the costume completed with a matching print scarf to be worn on the head or as a scarf shawl.

The proudest title in the Army

IT CONSISTS of two simple words.

Yet every soldier who's worth his salt covets it.

This title is simply:

"Good Soldier."

It isn't just happenstance that so many women in the WAC have earned this title—the proudest in the Army.

For wherever Wacs are working, both here and overseas, there you find a job well done. And done with a spirit so gallant and fine that high Army officers everywhere say of the WAC...

"They're soldiers. Good soldiers!"

Good soldiers...
